MYERS/RICH LIVE/WORK SPACE

These clients are artists who were drawn to the idea of combining their studios with their home. With the purchase of a 5,000-square-foot brick building, we were able to help them do just that. The design divides the building into roughly one-third living space and two-thirds studio space. The owners are delighted with the end result, and they find equally rewarding the contribution they have made to the preservation and revitalization of their neighborhood.
